BONNE TERRE NOTES

By E. J. S.

The epidemic of la grippe seems to be state wide, very few families here remain immune, there are as many as five ill in some homes under the care of a physician, limited space makes it impossible to name all the ill. Mrs. Prince Maul is seriously ill with pneumonia and other complications. The Sunday school Board was entertained by Miss Zella Washington last week. Dainty refreshments were served. Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Robinson were called to Festus on account of the serious illness of their niece, Miss Pearl Ransom. Rev. A. J. Sanders, pastor of Brown Chapel, specialized with a twenty minute sermon Sunday evening, which was enjoyed by all present. The young people are taking much interest in the Christian Endeavor, interesting papers are read every Sunday evening.

POPLAR BLUFF NOTES

By Mrs. C. P. Jackson

The reception given by W. C. Kelly, in honor of her daughter, Willie Mae, who recently returned from a three months' stay in St. Louis, was a brilliant affair. The Junior League of the C. M. E. Church are progressing nicely under the efficient leadership of Mrs. Jesse Howard. Mrs. W. H. Huston closed a two weeks' revival meeting Sunday at the M. E. Church. Mr. and Mrs. James Strasser, of Little Rock, Ark., are the guests of their mother, Mrs. L. Strasser. Prof. A. J. Anthony, of Belmont, was the guest of Mrs. C. P. Jackson last Thursday. Miss Willie Kelly is a reader of the Argus this week. Mr. Tompkins, of Neelyville, is having quite a success taking orders for the book on the life of Booker T. Washington. Master Albert Jackson takes great pride in selling the Argus every Saturday.

FERRISBURG NOTES

By Essie Page

Mrs. Martha Simpson, widow of Samuel Simpson, is ill. Rev. Rhodes, pastor of Clayton Church, baptized Miss Viola Clay last Sunday. Miss Edna McGuire, her schoolmate, was present. The Ferguson Church had Sunday afternoon singing, then led by Miss Wade and others. Their selections were beautiful. Rev. Barnes gave a short talk on the necessity of knowing God's word and the college, etc., which was quite beneficial to all. Madam Page, of St. Louis, was present and delivered an address after the program Mrs. Taylor, Madam Page and Rev. Barnes enjoyed a well prepared dinner at the residence of Mrs. Mamie Hunter. Mr. DeWalt is the guest of Mr. Carey Wade.

FARMINGTON NOTES

By Miss D. F. Baker

Many have been released from the clutches of la grippe and others are convalescing. A few are just now taking. "There's no use to take a trunk home," cried the old ladies. "The spirit for athletes at Douglas School for several days. Principal J. C. Statten has returned to his post after a week's illness. At a "Zoo Conundrum Hour," Sunday afternoon at the residence of Mrs. D. F. Baker the successful contestants were: Misses Zelma Souk, Mattie Valle and Mrs. Mamie Souk. The ladies are to be commended for their deep thinking. A luncheon was served. The ladies of Farmington had not realized that this is leap year. Let no lady be single when the year comes to a close. Mr. Walter Franks, of Coffman attended to business here Friday. Mrs. Joe Jordan recovered sufficiently to return to her home in Charleston, Thursday. Rev. Reynolds, and congregation were, quite glad to be able to render financial aid to a traveler, who, through ill health, found it necessary entering the town to apply for aid. The young man was thus enabled to pursue his journey to his home in Louisiana. The King's Herald donated the sum of one dollar and a quarter. Mr. Samuel Burke and Mr. Bonnie Madison are now dealing in facts and figures. They are preparing for a brighter day.

CHARLESTON NOTES

By M. L. E.

Rev. J. D. Backslide spent an extra Sunday in Charleston, the high water blocking his path to Belmont. Rev. Nance, of Belmont, preached at the A. M. E. Church Sunday evening. Miss Claudia Moore and Master Alonzo Clarkson spent Saturday and Sunday in Commerce, the guests of Mrs. Elmer Moore. The body of Mr. Arthur Edwards, son of Mrs. W. Thomas, was brought here for burial Sunday. Funeral services were conducted by Rev. J. R. Hopkins. Mr.

Theodore Lane was a Cairo visitor Sunday. It is rumored that wedding bells will soon ring here. Mr. Wm. Hamilton, the electrician, may go to DeSoto soon to install electric lights in the A. M. E. Church. Lincoln School is busy preparing a Christmas entertainment, to be given on the 12th of February. The five year old child of Mr. and Mrs. E. Wilkins, died Monday morning. We hope to have several Argus readers in Charleston before another month passes.

CAPE GIRARDEAU NOTES

By Miss H. N. Jones

Cape Girardeau has suffered the destruction of many dwelling houses and several business establishments, by fire. The home of Mr. and Mrs. David Watson, on North St., was the first and the active work of Mr. Charley Williams saved the building from the flames. The home of Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Miller on rear Sprigg St., was burned to the ground, this being a large home several families live in. On January 2, a blacksmith shop, hardware store, a saloon, and a bakery were burnt on the 13th, another of Mr. Anthony Miller's houses burnt, this one was at 13 Spring St. Miss B. M. White, Mrs. Helen Young and family, Mrs. Lucinda Wall, occupied the building and Mr. Miller, who has been stricken with blindness occupied a room in this building since the burning of his former home. Last Sunday Miss Julia Penney died at her mother's home on Frederick St., of tuberculosis, which she has been suffering for the past two years. She was buried Tuesday from the Baptist Church of which she was a member. Prof. J. S. Cobb, of the Lincoln School faculty was on the sick list last week. Mr. W. H. Rowan, a mail carrier, who was seriously ill last week, is much improved.

Miss Mary Sparks, of DeSoto, is attending high school here. She is staying with Rev. and Mrs. M. S. Smith. Sunday closed the 14-day revival meeting at the Baptist Church, which was begun with meeting night, with Rev. W. W. Coleridge, D. D., of Bytchville, Ark., to carry on the meeting which he did with the result of the gaining of 19 souls. Rev. Coleridge has done a great work for Cape Girardeau and the people are always glad to greet him. At the A. M. E. Church a revival meeting was begun the first Sunday in January with Rev. Holmes, of Bytchville, Ark., as conductor. A deal of enthusiasm is being manifested and up to date 19 additions have been made to the church. This meeting is expected to continue throughout this week. Last Thursday night the member of the Baptist Church gave the pastor a surprise storm party, bringing him many things that made him rejoice. Excellent services were enjoyed at both A. M. E. and Baptist churches Sunday.

CARTAGE NOTES

By Mrs. Cora Tinnon

Mrs. Milton Minor was called to Baxter Springs to attend the funeral of a relative. Mrs. Pete Ellis is suffering with a sprained ankle. Mrs. Sarah Pearl is indisposed. Miss Marie Wood has returned to Pittsburg, Kansas, after spending a few days with her parents. Mr. U. Cole is now employed at Sedalia. Miss Malissa Ford was the guest of Prof. and Mrs. Scott Sunday. Prof. Ralph Pena returned after a short stay out of the city. The Alpha Art Club will hold its next meeting with Miss Myrtle Webb. The Teachers' and Parents' Association of Lincoln School, was largely attended. Mr. P. Phillips has returned home after visiting his daughter, who lives in Kansas and he also visited other points. Mr. Ralph Tinnon visited friends in Newton, a few days and reported a pleasant visit.

CHESTER NOTES

By Miss M. Bigby

Miss Hattie Meredith is the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Meredith. Mr. P. Nelson is indisposed. The children's exercises on Saturday evening were highly enjoyed. Mrs. Henry Holton was hostess to the Ladies' Aid January 13. An excellent lunch was served. Madames Great Abner and Pear Wilkerson were guests. The persons who took part in the Parent-Teacher Association, Friday, deserve much credit for the addresses are "just what we need."

Collection of subscriptions for the new building have already begun is dead season. Over a thousand dollars have already been added to the fund. Mr. Grant, the president of the Y. M. C. A. Glee Club, said that the Glee Club, which meets every Monday evening, is having most interesting rehearsals. He also said that there was a place for a few more voices.

WEBSTER GROVES NOTES

By Mrs. L. Laird

Rev. E. B. Baker, pastor of the M. E. Church, of California, Mo., was a visitor of Rev. J. L. Brooks, last Sunday. Rev. Brooks preached at 11 o'clock. His message was presented with power of the spirit. Mrs. J. L. Brooks, who has been sick, is much improved. Miss Maggie Phillips, of Palukit, Tenn., who has been visiting friends here for the past month, departed for her home Jan. 19. Mrs. Clara Warren, of 2809 Laclede Ave., St. Louis, who is indisposed, would be glad to see her friends. Mrs. Smith, of Holland Ave., and Mrs. Helen Taylor are ill. Mr. A. D. Pierson is convalescing. The Misses Genevieve and Willa Pierson entertained at 6 o'clock dinner January 12th in both of Mrs. Maggie Phillips, of Palukit, Tenn. Those present were: Misses Minnie Stuart, Ida McCowen, and Mrs. Leola Laird. There will be a leap year for entertainment at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Sandy Pinner, January 27, for the benefit of the M. E. Church. Mrs. Ida Bright entertained the Willing Workers' Club of the First Baptist Church the 11th. The meeting was very interesting and successful.

JEFFERSON CITY NOTES

By W. C. Major

The Unity League at their last meeting adopted the following rule that the advisory board be appointed by the president of the League. The League promises to take on new life for the betterment of the people and city in general. The newly-elected president, Mr. Chas. Spencer, and vice-president, Mr. Grogg, are the leading undertaker of our city, are graduates of Lincoln Institute and should prove worthy members for the League's progress. Messrs. H. E. Johnson, Coleman, Scott, Ramsey, Jeff. Roberts, Holmes, Messrs. V. Thomas, P. Woodbridge and Mr. Perry are on the sick list. The ladies belonging to Needle Club are preparing soup for the school children each day at noon. The price is 1 cent a pint. Miss Tiney Thomas entertained with a party last week in honor of Miss Still, of St. Louis. A number of friends were present and the evening was spent in playing games and music. Miss Alveta Rankins entertained in honor of Miss Reeves and Mrs. Chas. Sanderson, of Kansas City, Saturday eve. An enjoyable evening was reported by the many guests there present. Mrs. Turner is a reader of the Argus. Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Reed, the newlyweds, are residing with Mrs. Franklin on E. Dunk on Street. There are two revivals going at Lincoln Institute, one in this month and the other on February 12. The public is cordially invited. The sleigh ride party of six spent a pleasant evening last week as the coasting on Jackson and McCarty Avenues was in tip-top condition. After the ride the party then enjoyed a sumptuous luncheon which had been prepared. The checker tournament between the east and west ends is creating quite a rivalry. The driving line is Monroe St. The great game of Miss Janita is being played by Mr. C. Olson was an enjoyable affair. A delicious menu was served by Miss Valerio Thomas. Miss Pearl Woodbridge, who is indisposed, is taking treatment from an osteopath.

RACE PATRONAGE AND PRIDE

The play, "For His People," being presented at the Booker Washington Theatre this week, is a strong lesson in race pride and patronage. It is particularly interesting to us because the scene is laid in the Argus office. It portrays our policy, our strife against obstacles, our hope for ultimate success as the champion of Negro advancement. It shows that we have a great future, and the time will soon be at hand when Ethiopia shall stretch forth her hands to God. We must take off our hats to Mr. Turpin. Nothing but race pride could have inspired him to stage this drama. It can have but one purpose—the advancement of colored people. It dates the beginning of a revolution that will soon become widespread in this city and the nation, and will cause a combination of men and dollars in enterprises that will soon place the Negro on the high road to financial success.

PUT THE MOB DOWN

A Negro was lynched January 18, 1916, at Buckville, Ark., for slapping a small white boy. After the mob had disposed of the Negro in its brutal and summary way, it burned down the Negro schoolhouse. Why did the mob burn down the schoolhouse? Because, one may suppose, school education prepares the Negro to resist insults, whether coming from white or colored, and causes one to denounce all forms of lawlessness.

Such items as this one—lynching a Negro and burning down a Negro schoolhouse—are of such common occurrence that they barely get a paragraph in our daily papers. If a Negro is burned alive, he may get two paragraphs, but no bitter denunciation in editorial comment. Should such a horror be perpetrated on the battle-grounds of the bloodiest war of history, now raging in Europe, our great American press would go wild in denouncing the barbarity, but if a Negro is hanged in a pine box, saturated with coal oil and burned to a crisp in Mississippi, the news columns will tell the story simply, and the editorial page be as silent as death on this bit of Southern pastime.

It is indifference to the mob, this callousness to crime, this tolerance to race hatred, that has emboldened the Ku Klux to resurrect in Southeast Missouri and start once more on their night ride for murder and arson. So the news comes from down around New Madrid, the hotbed of Negro lynching and banishment, that the night-riders are in the saddle. It is like the Ku Klux Klan, a secret organization of oath-bound assassins, only now their idea is to kill rich white men instead of poor Negroes; to burn white factories and mills instead of Negro churches and schoolhouses; to burn down towns and make white families shelterless instead of driving the Negro population out of the town like they did at Pierce City.

The mob in the South has grown and fattened on Negro blood, and now it threatens the business and comfort of the white man.

The state as well as the nation must take the mob in hand and punish it, whether it lynches a Negro or burns down a factory.

THE ENEMY WITHIN

The disgraceful scenes at Youngstown, Ohio, indicate that there is an enemy within our borders greater than all the foreign foes that might be raised against us. The drunken mob that fires towns, shoots up streets, kills and wounds innocent residents, and surges forth like the uncivilized tribes of history's darkest days is a greater menace to our nation than anything in the whole realm of our affairs. It was a mob that ruined Rome, that tore Carthage, that desecrated France. It was a mob that forced Italy into the greatest of all wars. It is the mob spirit that marks the first evidence of decay; for the religion of the mob is death.

The Ohio outrage calls for the most drastic action. This mob spirit must be crushed. National security will be jeopardized until all Americans learn that the mob reeks of savagery and barbarism. —The St. Louis Times.

THE CASE AGAINST THE INITIATIVE LAW OF THE CHARTER

The loss of the case against the Initiative Law of the city charter is not a decision that has any bearing whatever on the constitutionality of the proposed segregation law, as some people seem to think. This test was upon the Initiative provision of the present city charter, under which the proposed segregation election is to be held.

The Local Branch of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People has already made plans looking towards the testing out in the United States Court the constitutionality of the proposed segregation law, should the same carry at the election to be held February 29.

The case of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People against the Initiative Law recently argued before Judge Shields will be appealed at once to the Supreme Court of the State of Missouri, and we are appealing to the people not only to assist us in this effort, but also to co-operate with us in every possible way in making the campaign for a victory at the polls. The immense registration of January 13 was indeed gratifying, but our work along that line is not yet completed. We must see to it that every voter casts his ballot on election day, and also that a sufficient number of white persons are interested in the matter that they too will get out and vote to keep this nefarious ordinance off of the statute books.

This is a battle not only for the people of St. Louis, but for the people everywhere, and nothing short of the greatest possible effort should be made to keep alive that principle which was established fifty years ago by the blood of hundreds of thousands, that this country cannot exist "half slave and half free." —St. Louis Branch National Association for the Advancement of Colored People.

Injunction Denied Orphan Home Report

tion must be held void, and the question is whether or not it is "in harmony with and subject to the Constitution and laws of the State."

The people of the State delegated the power to the people of the City to make a Charter for their own government without any restrictions, except it should be in harmony with the laws and Constitution of the State. The Board of Freeholders and the City electorate exercised their power and after voting for the election of such "house of legislation" in their Charter of 1914, enacted certain provisions limiting the power of the municipal assembly.

The Constitution does not expressly confer any particular power on the Board of Aldermen, much less exclusive power as contended for by plaintiff, but leaves these questions entirely to the people of such City.

I find no provision in either the laws or the Constitution of the State with which the Initiative provision of the Charter is not "in harmony," and having been adopted by the people in accordance with the terms of the Constitution it is valid and binding on the people of St. Louis, if the Initiative provision of the Charter is read in connection with the Initiative provision of the Constitution, it would be found that they are in absolute harmony, the only difference being that one applies to the whole State and all the people, whereas the other applies to only a subdivision of the State and a part of the people of the State.

I have no doubt, then, that the Initiative provision of the Charter is valid, and that under it the people of St. Louis have a right to enact ordinances for their own government.

The demurrer that the petition does not state facts sufficient to constitute a cause of action must be sustained, temporary injunction refused, the rule to show cause discharged, and the plaintiffs be dismissed.

VOTERS ORDERED TO APPEAR REVISION DAY, FEBRUARY 4

On account of the heavy Negro registration January 13, the Election Commissioners claim fraud and have issued notices for a majority of those who registered to appear at the polls on revision day, February 4, between the hours of 8 a. m. and 10 p. m. It is hoped that their names should be dropped from the list. Everyone who received notice should be sure to appear in order to vote against segregation, February 29. All voters who were more than 50 miles away, or were sick on registration day, should go to the office of the Election Commissioners, in the city hall, at once, and have their names entered.

To Editor St. Louis Argus:

Dear Sir:

I notice, appearing in some of our daily papers a series of articles written by Mr. Charles K. Cohen, 2907 Easton Ave., a German Hebrew by nationality, in which he denounces the segregation movement, and takes issue with the promoters of the movement, upon the ground that it is discriminatory in its effect as being unfair and unjust to the Negro citizens of this city. The articles in my opinion create the impression that if the Negroes can be segregated then for the same reason and upon the same ground the Jews can be segregated. It seems to me that Mr. Cohen can be of great benefit to us if he will, in the manner in which presents the question to his friends and fellow citizens in opposition to this measure. I see that the temporary injunction has been denied us and the election will be held to vote in this measure; therefore I feel that we need every available vote we can get, and think it would be advisable to confer with Mr. Cohen or have him confer with the campaign committee relative to assisting in the campaign.

Thanking you in advance for the publication of this letter, I remain,
Yours very truly,
H. E. Taylor.

THEATRES

SMITH-BRIGHT PLAYERS AT BOOKER WASHINGTON
THEATREScore Big Hit in Timely Racial Production Entitled "For My People."
Here Next Week

One of the most timely theatrical productions, so far as the Negro is concerned, is on show at the Booker Washington Theater this week. The play, "For My People," has as its theme, race pride. It is an interesting comedy drama, portraying the dawning of a new era in the progress of the Negro race when Negroes will patronize Negroes in business, Negroes will be running factories; publishing daily papers and maintaining, profitably, places of amusement of their own. The purpose of the play is to promote business enterprise among Negroes and do through the stage and drama what should be done also by the Negro pulpit, press and platform. The idea is happily considered and fostered in a newspaper office.

Joe Bright, as Col. John Hamilton Brown, the editor, who succeeds in carrying his plans regardless of obstacles ranging from attempted bribery to almost assassination, is an ideal and inspiring character; Miss Florence Sewall, as the agent of the opposition, plays the part well to the end; Noisy Speedy Smith, as Greenwater Wilson, the printer's devil, furnishes the comedy and keeps the house roaring; Dainty Theresa Burroughs-Brooks, and Izee, the reporter, is as usual, perfection. Gallie McGaston, the adopted son; Raymond Brown, foreman; and Miss Emma Fredericks, Greenwater's wife, all play their parts well. As we have stated, the production is timely, it is an interesting and entertaining agitation of race patronage and is an inspiration to leaders and laymen in the strife toward race advancement and preservation. Every true citizen should see it.

Next week Smith-Bright players will present "A Widow's Ranch," a western comedy drama, at the Booker Washington Theater next week. We will have an opportunity to see our friend and townsman, Chas. A. Hunter in the cast. There will be plenty of new music, dancing and rip-roaring comedy. Don't miss it.

Miss Maybelle Brown, of the Smith-Bright players, is sick in Cincinnati.

Roscoe Carter, eccentric dancing comedian, of Omaha, is the guest of Taggart Hartgraves, 2747 Chippewa St.

come from the cultivated lips of this most away into the dim mysterious future—

the great beyond—across the dark chasm which separates the human body from the fitting soul—and that which is to be told. The separated are brought together, too are made friends, lost property is recovered, the mist is brushed away from business ventures, the hand is so guided that failures are averted, the earth's surface is explored, its treasures brought to his mysterious perceptive mind, and while he gives names, dates,
facts and figures, his visitor sits dumfounded at the revelations he makes to rich inheritance together with the combined knowledge and priceless experience of generations. No matter what your
